

Project News

atmosfair site visit in Tonk

Project manager Kerstin Burghaus visited our biomass plant in Tonk in October. Her impression: The plant is running well and our partner KPTL is constantly working on further improving the processes of biomass delivery, storage and use. By creating jobs and opening a new income source to the farmers in the area, the project improves the livelihoods of many people and contributes to sustainable development in the region.

